

suse studio™

Testdrive. Without downloading.

Even if you have created a lean & mean appliance, it can be quite a hassle to download and test it, especially when getting to perfection means a lot of iteration.

That is why we have created testdrive — a great way to test and modify your appliance, directly in your browser. That's right! You can boot your appliance directly in the browser and even connect to its network services.

